Dynasty 5° Sparkling Wine Wins Bronze Medal at Decanter World Wine Awards 2017

(Hong Kong – 29 May 2017) Dynasty Fine Wines Group Limited (“Dynasty” or “the Group”) (Stock Code: 828), a premier winemaker in China, announced that Dynasty 5° Sparkling Wine has won Bronze medal at the Decanter World Wine Awards 2017 (“DWWA”).

Dynasty 5° Sparkling Wine uses grapes harvested from Hangu Vineyard in Tianjin, one of the best Muscat vineyards in China. It is traditionally made by second fermentation in bottles which are slowly tipped and jiggled by hand at Dynasty Winery in Tianjin. The process gives the wine a pale lemon and crystal clarity with a scent of honey, lime and lychee. This honor Dynasty Sparkling Wine was awarded at DWWA, following it named as TOP 10 New Wine Products at the 2016 “Qingzhuo Awards”, represents yet another acknowledgement of Dynasty’s winemaking techniques and quality by top wine experts from around the world.

Also worthy of notice is that Dynasty and Chandon of Moët Hennessy under LVMH from France are the only two brands honored in the sparkling wine category from China. Chandon has about 60-year history and enjoys world fame. Earning acclaims in the same category with Chandon speaks volume to the quality of Dynasty and its standing in the international wine market on par with the best in the world.

Mr. Hao Feifei, Chairman of Dynasty, said, “DWWA is one of the most influential and well-known competitions in the wine industry, and it is a great encouragement for Dynasty to be recognized at the award. This year, there are more contestants than ever before, but Dynasty stands out in the intense competition, which is proof that the excellent quality of Dynasty is highly regarded in the global market. In the future, we will continue to apply our fine craftsmanship to pursuit quality excellence, explore the characteristics of wines that appeal to the palate of individual wine lovers, as well as present Chinese wines of distinctive style and superior quality to the world.”

Organized by the leading global wine magazine Decanter, the DWWA is one of the largest and most influential wine competitions in the world. The tournament has a history of 14 years and is known for its stringent grading criteria. More than 17,200 wines entered this year, a record high indicative of the intensity of the competition. The judging panel comprises 219 wine experts from around the world, including 65 Masters of Wine and 20 Master Sommeliers, to ensure the judging process is professional and authoritative.
