Dynasty Honoured Again with the
“The Asset Triple A – China’s Most Promising Companies” Award

(Hong Kong, 9 February 2012) – Dynasty Fine Wines Group Limited (“Dynasty” or the “Group”) (Stock Code: 828), a premier winemaker in China, has announced that it has once again been honoured as one of the “The Asset Triple A – China’s Most Promising Companies” in the food and beverages industry category by The Asset magazine. The Group had previously garnered this accolade in 2009, and its selection serves as wider international recognition of the leadership potential and trustworthiness of the Group.

The Asset magazine has the largest circulation of any finance magazine based in Asia, with readership mainly comprising listing companies, investment banks and institutional investors. The award entries are adjudicated by the magazine’s Board of Editors. Based on both the research of The Asset and third-parties, Chinese companies within 10 industries are short listed. The Asset then determines the winners evaluating several key business areas, specifically, corporate governance, growth and development strategy, competitiveness within the industry, investor relations and financial performance. This year’s awards mark the second occasion since 2009 that The Asset has recognised outstanding Chinese companies that possess the potential of becoming regional or global players by successfully adopting international best practices. Dynasty also won the award in both occasional years.

Mr Bai Zhisheng, Chairman and Executive Director of Dynasty, said, “We are very honoured to be named among ‘China’s Most Promising Companies’ once again by the The Asset. We want to thank our investors for their long-standing support and attention. We have enhanced our corporate governance standards to ensure that the Group will continue to grow soundly and steadily. At the same time, we are boosting our corporate competitiveness in a bid to become a stronger enterprise, and in the long run, deliver more handsome returns on the investment of our shareholders.”
